PLUS POINTS

Entrepreneurship drive

The Bengal Chamber organised “The Rising Studentpreneurs 2019-20, The Annual Idea Hunt” recently. This contest targeted the college students, with a vision to encourage, support and provide them an opportunity to explore and bring on-board original and new ideas, which may lead them to achieve success as entrepreneurs in future.

The contest invited all student innovators, thinkers and makers of the country, who have a dream to create something new and contribute to India’s success towards becoming an innovation and entrepreneurship hub. Participants were encouraged to compete with their project, concepts and innovative ideas. Out of 200 applications, five were selected, who received certificates from Anil Sahasrabudhe, chairman, AICTE in Delhi.
