March, 2014

from the desk of the PRESIDENT

Dear Member,

14 March, 2014

FY 2014-15 will commence with the Lok Sabha elections! The entire nation is looking forward to the elections not only because it is the most important event in a democracy, but also with the expectation that the results will have a significant and positive impact on the economic and business scenario in the country. The economic indicators are down with inconsistent industrial performance. Although inflation has cooled somewhat, key rates are expected to be held at their present levels to ensure decline in inflation continues before growth can be encouraged. The upward trend in the bourses is actually triggered by FIIs, which might not be a long-term phenomenon.

On the home front in Bengal, while we should compliment the State Government for the work on infrastructure development, we are still looking for a big-ticket investment on the industrial front, which can catapult the State economy forward. We only hope that the next Financial Year will witness a great leap forward for both our State and the Nation.

THE BENGAL CHAMBER
IT QUIZ 2014

The IT Committee of The Bengal Chamber of Commerce and Industry (BCC&I) organized the annual Bengal Chamber IT Quiz on 28th February in the Chamber.

While the theme for the Quiz was 'IT', the questions covered a wide spectrum of interest areas — with each question with an IT angle but not necessarily technically oriented to IT technical issues/processes. This quiz had a unique positioning of its own --- a little away from the more familiar general and business quizzes, which made it all the more interesting and enjoyable.

The Quiz was a very exciting affair, complete with brainstormers and fabulous prizes! The winners were presented with Acer Chromebooks; the first runners up were presented with Seagate 2 TB External Hard Discs and the second runners up were presented with Swarovski crystalline memory sticks.

▲ Mr. Charanpreet Singh, Quiz Master

Over forty teams of corporates, hard core quizzers and students participated in this annual Quiz, which has become a must-attend session for techies. Mr. Charanpreet Singh was the Quiz Master.

The winners were Raktim Kumar Nag, a student of Jadavpur University and Partha Sarathi Ghatak, a medico. The 1st runners up were Abhishek Kar and Debasish Mukherjee from mjunction. The 2nd runners up were Sampad Mishra, SAIL and Wasim Sajjad, NIT, Rourkela.

THE BENGAL CHAMBER, IN ASSOCIATION WITH THE TELEGRAPH, PRESENTED THE NEXT EDITION OF THE THINK SESSION

SPEAKER: SHRI SHEKHAR DUTT, HON'BLE GOVERNOR OF CHHATTISGARH, SPOKE ON "HERITAGE AND ECONOMIC OPPORTUNITIES IN EASTERN INDIA"

Hon'ble Governor of Chhattisgarh, Shri Shekhar Dutt, addressed The Bengal Chamber members and invitees at the Think lecture in association with The Telegraph, on 3rd March 2014.

Speaking on "Heritage and Economic opportunities in Eastern India", Shri Dutt reiterated that Chhattisgarh shifted from central to eastern India after it was carved out of Madhya Pradesh in 2000, reaffirming its proximity to Calcutta.

"Chhattisgarh is eastern India rather than central," Dutt said while delivering the Think lecture presented by the Bengal Chamber of Commerce and Industry (BCCI) in association with The Telegraph. A former Defence Secretary and Deputy National Security Adviser, Dutt exhorted Calcutta to lead eastern India to excellence.

The Governor, who was a commissioned officer of the army as well as an IAS officer, analyzed eastern India's heritage and economic opportunities in his speech. According to him, it was an "immense outcome of history and geography that had made Calcutta the erstwhile capital city of India". According to him, "21st century is the century when Calcutta can regain its glory". He listed two factors that went in Calcutta's favour. "It is the people, outgoing and thinking ahead of their times, that made the British realize that the capital has to be Calcutta," said Dutt. The city's proximity to the sea and the Southeast Asian countries was another decisive factor. "All around us are people and places who could gainfully be a participant in the development of themselves and thereby allowing Calcutta to assume leadership," said Dutt.

The city could regain its position as the country's leader in sea commerce with Myanmar, Thailand and east Asian countries. Dutt said eastern India's economy could land in a win-win situation if robust trade ties could be established with Southeast Asia. He said the focus should be to work towards achieving these goals in a decade or two by pursuing a definite gameplan. "We should involve stakeholders constantly in dialogue with each other," he advised. His caveat: "If you don't do it, somebody else will."

He said India and Malaysia got freedom from foreign rule around the same time and had a similar per capita GDP of $120 at the time of independence. "Today, Malaysia's per capita GDP is $16,000 or more while we are struggling below $1,000. But if we consider gene pool and literacy as parameters, India and Malaysia are on a par."

"A Day Out for Old Age Home Members" organized by Community Connect Club, JISCE

There has been a steady rise in the population of elderly persons in India. The number has increased from 19.8 million in 1951 to 76 million in 2001 and the projections indicate that the number of people in the age bracket of 60 years and above in India will increase to 100 million in 2013 and to 198 million in 2030. The traditional norms and values of the Indian society laid stress on showing respect and providing care for the aged. However, in recent times, society is witnessing a gradual but definite withering of the joint family system, as a result of which a large number of parents are being neglected by their families exposing a lack of emotional, physical and financial support. These senior citizens are facing a lot of problems in the absence of adequate social security.

This clearly reveals that ageing has become a major social challenge and there is a need to create a social milieu, which is conducive and sensitive to emotional needs of the elderly.

With this objective, the Community Connect Club organized a greatly successful event "A Day out for Old Age Home Members" on 4th March 2014 at the JIS College campus to set an example of moral values for the students of the college towards the elders of our society. Four Old Age Homes participated in the event. These were, Kalyania, Jiban Sathi, Aponjon and Maa Sarda of Kalyani. The event was held on the auspicious Hanuman Mandir foundation day of the college. 39 senior citizens participated in this event. Students spent the whole day with the senior citizens and organized Bhog Prasad for them.

The event was graced by our respected MD, Mr. Taranjit Singh; Director, Dr. A. Guha; Deputy Director JIS Group, Mr. U. S. Mukherjee and GM Corporate JIS Group, Mrs. Sila Singh Ghosh. More than 50 students participated in the event. The other members of Community Connect Club namely Dr. Subhranil Som, Mr. Basudev Dey, Mr. Sainik Mahata, Mr. Proloy Ghosh, Mr. Uttiya Kar, Mrs. Monalisha Dey and Mrs. Sraboni Biswas were also present. The Community Connect Club extends thanks to the college authority for giving the permission to organize the novel event in the college.
